USA STOPPED FINANCING ITS ARMY

⌚ AUGUST 11, 2011 ⚡ LEAVE A COMMENT

The USA Department of the Army is among the three military departments of defense of the United States of America. It is the Federal government agency and the United States is organized in it and is controlled by the Secretary of the Army. He has legal rights to administer army affairs and issue regulations for its government, within the law limitations and with commands of the Secretary of Defense and the President.

1st of April 2003 in Iraqi newspapers

April 1, 2009

Al-Thawra (the revolution), Al-Jumhuriya (the republic) and Babel were the main dailies I grew up with. The first two have been around since the Baath party took power in Iraq. The third is actually Saddam's son little project. He was the editor-in-chief and all-round overseer. But it was the only one that had very little original content. I can't remember now what the point of Babel was. There were already two government mouthpieces. Maybe having a paper on the side which published content from wire services and articles stolen from international papers? I don't know.

Anyway, below are scans of the above-the-fold front pages on the 1st of April 2003. These issues must be one of the last issues printed of the three major Iraqi newspapers as in 8 days chaos would reign over the city and no papers were printed for quite some time.

SOCIAL WAR

The top half shows the standard Facebook login screen with fields for "Email or Phone" and "Password", a "Log In" button, a "Keep me logged in" checkbox, and a "Forgot your password?" link. The background features a large, dramatic photograph of a group of soldiers on horseback, many holding flags with Arabic script, riding through a desert landscape under a cloudy sky.

BASTA COL PACIFISMO Arriva l'Isis, armiamoci

Sos da Tripoli, ma Renzi ora frena: «Non è tempo di intervenire». Per forza, abbiamo smantellato la Difesa
Berlusconi: sulla Libia noi responsabili, attaccare Gheddafi fu un errore

di Alessandro Sallusti

La situazione è questa. Se l'Isis completasse la presa della Libia, tra non molto potrebbe accadere che dall'aeroporto di Tripoli decollassero, indisturbati, aerei - militari e civili non importa - con destinazione il Cupolone di Roma, come del resto ampiamente annunciato dai capi del terrorismo islamico. Oppure un bel missile potrebbe essere lanciato più o meno a casaccio verso le coste europee. Le difese da scenari del genere sono solo due. La prima è occupare militarmente la Libia (sull'ipotesi ieri Renzi ha frenato), la seconda sta nella difesa. In questo caso, tempi di reazione e capacità di fuoco diventano decisivi, vistala breve distanza che separa l'Italia dalla nuova capitale del terrore. E se negli anni scorsi avessimo tagliato meno le spese militari - magari a scapito di quelle per l'accoglienza indiscriminata - certo oggi sa-
